

Consignment Terms and Conditions

Date: _____

Store Name: _____

Supplier Name: _____

1. Agreement Purpose

The supplier places her evening or bridal dress(es) with the store for rental purposes in exchange for a percentage of the rental income.

2. Dress Ownership

The dress remains the sole property of the supplier. This agreement does not transfer ownership to the store.

3. Rental Revenue Split

The supplier receives 50% of the rental price each time the dress is rented.
The store receives 50% for management, display, marketing, and cleaning services.

4. Consignment Period

The standard consignment period is two (2) years. The period may be adjusted based on the dress style and condition. The dress may not be withdrawn before the agreed period unless approved by the store.

5. Dress Condition

Dresses must be evening or bridal dresses only, in excellent condition, and professionally cleaned before being accepted. The store reserves the right to refuse any dress that does not meet these standards.

6. Normal Wear and Tear

The supplier agrees that the dress will not be returned in its original condition due to normal wear resulting from rentals.

7. Damage Policy

In the event of major, non-repairable damage, the renter is required to pay 50% of the original dress value, which will be paid to the supplier.

8. Cleaning Responsibility

The supplier must deliver the dress professionally cleaned. After acceptance, the store assumes responsibility for cleaning the dress between rentals.

9. Number of Rentals

The number of rentals is not guaranteed and depends on the dress style, size, condition, and market demand.

10. Supplier Account

Each supplier is provided with a personal account to track rental history, number of rentals, and earnings balance.

11. Payments

The supplier may request her earnings at any time. Payments are processed via Wish or MT.

12. End of Agreement

At the end of the consignment period, the supplier may collect her dress in its current condition without objection.
